

International Affiliates Program

The TeleLearning Network of Centres of Excellence has established a new affiliates program for international non-profit organizations.

- learn about state-of-art initiatives and national and international trends in the development and application of telelearning
- gain access to the expertise and knowledge of a network of leading researchers
- build research and development partnerships with learning institutions, companies, and the government sector in Canada

International Affiliate Status provides the following benefits:

- 1. Research Reports
  - Quarterly technical reports and annual report summarizing research results
  - Semi-annual newsletter
- 2. Brokerage Service
  - Assistance in matching interests and needs of international affiliates for joint research and development projects, trials of new technologies and learning approaches, or commercial opportunities
  - Assistance in identifying consultants or research contractors
  - Assistance in arranging for personnel exchanges and student and post-doc placements
- 3. Telelearning Technologies
  - Opportunities to trial new technologies and methods developed by the TeleLearning•NCE
- 4. Research Visits
  - Assistance of TeleLearning•NCE staff in arranging an annual lab or research visit to Canadian organizations and exemplar sites
- 5. Networking and Exchange Opportunities
  - Two complimentary passes to the annual conference of the TeleLearning•NCE

The annual fee for International Affiliates is C$5,000.
